- The newspaper La Calle publishes his article "What they were going to say and they prevented me from saying" in which he states that "The newspaper La Calle, together with magazine Bohemia, have been a decisive factor in the triumph of the truth and in the overwhelming victory we have achieved over hypocrisy and crime, La Calle newspaper cannot fail, it must not fail because of lack of resources, it would be a sham. Let the dictatorship close it, that is Ok. But do not let it perish due to lack of help! The people have the duty to help the paper and the people will help you."
